

SGS multitrace®

SGS multitrace® is an analytical screeningsmethod allowing to detect a broad range of chemical components in a single run. Hereby a powerful and innovative analytical concept is used. Soil and water samples are screened on the presence of 350 specific components. The analytical lab of VITO developed SGS Multitrace® in the framework of contract research.